

Assemblymen Call for Amendment on Prayers

Assemblymen Charles E. Chapel (R-46th District) and Howard J. Thelin (R-Glendale) have introduced a joint resolution in the State Legislature calling for an amendment to the Constitution which would permit non-sectarian prayer in public places.

The resolution also calls on the Congress to begin proceedings to amend the Constitution

Committee Sets Monday Meeting

The Torrance Citizens Committee for Good Government will meet Monday, 8 p.m., at the Madrona School. Club officers are: John Crain, chairman, and Janette Brittingham, secretary. Committeemen include Pat Hogue, Ted Baciu and John Regalli.

The meeting is open to the public. Further information is available at DA 3-3979 or FR 1-6666.

to protect references to the Divine Being in the pledge of allegiance to the flag and on U.S. currency, according to Chapel.

Members of the Board of Supervisors have endorsed the resolution, reports chief clerk Gordon Nesvig. Supervisor Warren Dorn, chairman of the board, said such an amendment as the joint resolution supports would "serve to deny the atheistic and materialistic concepts of communism with its attendant subservience of the individual."

The resolution is known as Assembly Joint Resolution 1.

Carson Area Tract Approved

Approval has been granted by the Regional Planning Commission for an 8-home subdivision south of 220th Street and east of Normandie Avenue.

Bayes Development Co. of Gardena will construct eight homes on the one-acre parcel

CROWDED MARKET . . . Shoppers crowded Food Fair at Van Ness and 182nd Street Monday evening as Manager Ken Carroll announced winners of grocery orders, a watch, and a mink coat in the store's current campaign to acquaint Southland residents with Food Fair values. Elva McMillen of 1919 Gramercy was selected as a mink winner while Victor Dodson, 1327 W. 187th Place, won a watch.
